

Volume 1

I. Introduction and Historical and Theoretical Context

1. Aims and Objectives	1
2. Methodology	4
3. Research	4
3.1 Difficulties with Research	5
4. Selection of Artists	6
5. Images	8
6. Structure	9
7. The Social and Political Context	10
7.1 The Cold War	11
7.2 Significant Dates and Events	12
8. Eastern Europe	15
9. Art in Eastern Central Europe	18
9.1 Official and Non-official Art	19
9.2 The Issue of the Canon	21
9.3 Socialist Realism	22
10. Refugees, Exiles and Émigrés	24
11. Refugees from Hungary and Czechoslovakia	26
12. Theoretical Aspects	28

II. Art in Exile - Literature Review..... 33

III. The Socio-political and Cultural Context

1. Twentieth Century Art in Hungary and Czechoslovakia	53
--	----

1.1.	Modernist Traditions	53
1.2.	Art After the War	58
1.3.	Socialist Art	60
1.4.	The Period of Thaw	66
1.5.	Subcultures in Hungary and Czechoslovakia. The Prague Spring	68
2.	The Hungarian Uprising and the Prague Spring	77
2.1.	The Revolutions	80
2.2.	The Military Intervention	85
2.3.	The Aftermath	89

IV. Hungarian Refugee Artists in Britain

1.	Hungarian Artists – An Overview	92
1.1	The Hungarian Refugee Crisis	92
1.2	Hungarians in Britain	94
1.3	The Significance of the Irodalmi Újság	95
1.4	Refugee Artists	96
1.5	Reasons for Emigration	97
1.6	The Exile Experience	101
1.7	The Memory of 1956	105
2.	The Arts Scene and Art Education in Britain	108
3.	Taurus Artists – An International Group	114
4.	The Legacy of the Hungarian Artists	114
5.	Identity and Loss in the Films of Robert Vas	117
5.1	The Life and Career of Robert Vas	118

5.2	Refugee England and the Free Cinema Movement	123
5.3	On the Frontier.....	126
5.4	My Homeland.....	129
5.5	Social Stance.....	132
5.6	Recurring Themes.....	134
5.7	Concluding Notes.....	140
6.	Dislocation and Alienation in György Gordon's Art	141
6.1	Gordon's Career in Hungary and his Arrival in Britain	141
6.2	Artistic Philosophy.....	147
6.3	Memories of the War and 1956.....	150
6.4	Self Portraiture	153
6.5	New Directions.....	157
6.6	Concluding Notes.....	163
7.	Edma: A Female Cartoonist in Exile	164
7.1	The Position of Women in Hungary and Great Britain in the 1950s.....	164
7.2	Edma's Early Career	168
7.3	Emigration	173
7.4	Ceramics	179
7.5	Concluding Notes.....	184
8.	Gyula Sajo: A Hungarian Landscape Painter in England.....	185
8.1	The Blessing and Burden of Communism	185
8.2	Landscape Painting in Hungary.....	187
8.3	1956	190

8.4	Exile and Landscape	191
8.5	The English Landscape	194
8.6	Sajo's Career in England	198
8.7	The Exile Experience	200
8.8	Artistic Stance	202
8.9	Representation and Myth	203
8.10	Concluding Notes	204

Volume 2

V. Czech Refugee Artists in Britain

1.	Czech Artists – An Overview	206
1.1	The 1968 Refugees	206
1.2	The Brain Drain	209
1.3	The Émigré Mindset	212
1.4	Charta 77	213
1.5	Czechs in Britain	214
2.	The Prague Spring Refugee Artists	215
2.1	The Early Careers	219
2.2	The Difficulties of Immigrant Life	224
2.3	The Exile Theme	226
2.4	The Power of Animation	227
2.5	Other Areas	229
3.	Josef Koudelka
	The Artistic Account of a Wandering Existence	234
3.1	Josef Koudelka's Artistic Career in Czechoslovakia . 235
3.2	1968 - The invasion of Prague	239

3.3	Great Britain and the Exiles series	243
3.4	The Metaphor of Exile	250
3.5	Magnum	252
3.6	Freedom	252
3.7	Myth and Identity	253
3.8	The Return	254
3.9	Panoramic Landscapes	256
3.10	Concluding Notes	258
4.	Eva Jiricna
	The Forms of Czech Functionalism in British Design	261
4.1.	Architecture is not for Women!	261
4.2	Jiricna's Early Influences	266
4.3	1968	270
4.4	Joseph Ettedgui	271
4.5	Modernism in Britain	274
4.6	Staircases	276
4.7	Jiricna's Modernism	277
4.8	Projects in the Czech Republic	280
4.9	Concluding Notes	282
5.	Nostalgia and Memory in the Paintings of Jiri Borsky	284
5.1	The Arrival in Britain	285
5.2	The Wanderer	286
5.3	The Early Difficulties of Exile	288
5.4	Political Art	292
5.5	Exile and Memory	297

5.6	Artistic Influences	301
5.7	Recurring Motifs	303
5.8	Concluding Notes	305
6.	Jan Mladovsky
	Conceptual Explorations of Cultural Identity	307
6.1	Mladovsky's Cultural Nomadism and "Alter Egos"	307
6.2	Mladovsky's Artistic Output	310
6.3	1968	312
6.4	Early Influences	316
6.5	Language and Meaning	318
6.6	Communism	323
6.7	Magnet	327
6.8	East / West	330
6.9	Concluding Notes	332

VI. Conclusion

1.	Artistic Activities in Exile.....	333
1.1.	Art's Function	335
1.2.	Response to Exile	336
1.3.	Strategies	337
1.4.	Themes of Exile	338
1.5.	Connection to Cultural Heritage	338
2.	Art and Politics	339
3.	Differences between the Situation of the Hungarian and Czech Artists	339

4. Women Artists.....	341
5. The Contribution of the Exiled Artists to British Art.....	341
5.1 The Function of Exiled Artists	342
6. The Contribution of the Thesis to Art in Exile Studies	343
6.1 Otherness	343
6.2 Belonging and Outsider Status	344
6.3 Identity	344
6.4 Mythology	345
7. Life Stories	346
Bibliography	347
Appendix – Short Biographies	407